BEHAVIORAL EXPECTATIONS AND DISCIPLINE CODE

This Behavioral Expectations and Discipline Code provides examples of minor and major transgressions which may lead to disciplinary action and is not intended to be exhaustive of possible offences nor prescriptive for the only disciplinary sanction.

General Rules

1. Stay with your group. Student participants must be within 10 feet of the group and ready to participate in activities at all times.
2. Respect, listen to, and obey accompanying adults.
3. Use of Electronic Games, MP3 iPods, iPhones or other cellular devices is strictly prohibited. Students may bring digital cameras that are not telephones.
4. Be gracious and respectful of all homestay families. Do not make inappropriate requests regarding meals, presents or trips.
5. Refrain from the behavior listed below.

Behaviors Which are Unacceptable at Any Time

1. Swearing
2. Name calling, teasing, taunting or harassing
3. Back talking to trip directors, chaperones, teachers, host parents or any responsible adult
4. Negative talk (especially when comparing homestay families, activities, etc.)
5. Littering
6. Fighting (either physical or verbal)
7. Leaving a hotel/hostel or hotel room, a school, a host family's home or a sightseeing location without permission from a trip leader or responsible adult.
8. Vandalism of any property
9. Theft of any private or public property or of money
10. Purchase or carrying of any inappropriate reading material, alcohol, cigarettes or lighters, guns or any weapons (including fake representations of weapons of any size)
11. Inappropriate touching of self or others in a sexual manner and/or other inappropriate behavior of a sexual nature (e.g. flashing private parts to others, masturbating in front of others, explicit sexual talk or taunting)
12. Any other behaviors which would reflect negatively on Richmond Elementary School, Portland Public Schools, Portland, Oregon or the United States of America.

Students who break any of the rules are subject to the disciplinary actions and consequences at the discretion of the Trip Director/Chaperones. For repeated and/or severe violations, the consequence may be removal from the trip and being sent home at the parent's expense.

Disciplinary Actions

At the discretion of the Trip Director and/or trip chaperones, the following actions will be the first steps taken to address mild to moderate student misbehavior:

- Student will sit with an adult on the bus or at mealtimes
- Student will be removed from the group
- Student will miss a planned activity or activities until behavior improves

If, in the opinion of the Trip Director and at their discretion, the infraction warrants a written Incident Report (including but not limited to student not responsive to repeated chaperone efforts to redirect negative behavior; student behavior requiring disproportionate amount of chaperone attention thus threatening the safety of other trip participants; and/or violations 6-12), any combination of the following steps may be taken:

- Student will be placed on trip probation. Parents will be contacted by the trip director. Student will speak with parents directly. Parents will be asked to inform their child that if they commit another infraction of the same or worse magnitude, they will be sent home.
- Immediate suspension of student participation. Parents will be called and must make plans to retrieve their child immediately at their expense.
- Any alternative arrangement made to the satisfaction of the Trip Director.

All reasonable efforts will be made to inform parents of student misbehavior at the earliest juncture possible. However, in the event of an egregious violation, the need for swift disciplinary response may preclude advance notification of the need for a student to be retrieved from the country. Therefore, it is the obligation of all trip participant guardians to be available to retrieve their child at any time during the course of the exchange.
